

A diagram of a fish, likely a salmon, shown in profile. A dashed line is drawn from the bottom left towards the middle of the fish's body. A black circle with a diagonal slash (a prohibition symbol) is placed over the dashed line, indicating that a line should not be drawn through the body of the fish.

No Adipose Fin = Tagged Salmon

1. If your salmon is missing the adipose fin, fill in the info below (one tagged salmon head/sheet).
2. Remove the fish's head and place it in a bag with this form (fish heads should be frozen).
3. Turn in salmon heads to Fort Pierre GFP Office, Oahe Marina, Spring Creek Resort, Carl's Bait Shop or West Whitlock Recreation Area.
