Alaska String Band

Hailing from Alaska's capital city of Juneau, the Zahasky family, also recognized internationally as the Alaska String Band, brings the best of Americana music. This dynamic, four-member family band makes their home on the last frontier and is the subject of much curiosity and inspiration for all those who happen to be fortunate to see one of their shows.

10:15 a.m. - 11:30 a.m.

Kerry Grombacher

Kerry Grombacher plays guitar and mandolin and writes and performs contemporary folk and western songs. In the spirit of the troubadours of old, he paints vivid portraits and tells fascinating stories that are set in the landscape of the west.

12:00 p.m. - 1:30 p.m.

Cambria String Band

Cambria String Band is the Black Hill's own contemporary bluegrass band. They play a mix of anything from Top 40 to folk music. This makes them a highly sought-after band in the Black Hills.

2:00 p.m. - 3:30 p.m.

Ramblin' Rangers

The Ramblin' Rangers have been playing good old country music since 2006. A local favorite who's programs center around the life and times of the old time cowboy, cattle drives, and the history of the chuck wagon.

Welcome to the 28th Annual Arts Festival hosted by Custer State Park and Custer State Park Resorts. Please enjoy all the vendors, listen to the music under the Big Top Tent or stop by the Education Tent to discover more about South Dakota.
